JERA invests A$25 million in the Silva Carbon Origination Fund

22 July 2026

JERA today announced an A$25 million investment in the Silva Carbon Origination Fund.

The investment supports Silva's work to develop high-integrity nature-based carbon credit projects through integrated reforestation and sustainable agriculture.

Silva Capital Co-Managing Director Raphael Wood said: "JERA joins other quality partners in projects that will reintroduce forests on cleared lands, incorporating a diverse range of native plant species, and designed to maintain the agricultural productivity of the land which enables concurrent agricultural activities without compromising environmental goals."
